Will Come Officially Before the Board On Tuesday.

The beard of scheatlen will hold a special meeting on Tassday evening for the surpose of receiving officially he resignation of Dr. Millspaugh, the superintendent of the public schools, and acting thereon. It is not thought probable, in case the resignation is accepted, that anything will be done at this meeting towards appending a successor to Dr. Millspaugh. It is not end of the public and important mitter and the applications of the various candidates will have to be considered with great are and deliberation. The members of the board feel this and are not discovered.
